

As an Indian citizen,

I Urge the Indian Government to..

Condemn atrocities committed by Myanmar junta.

Stop selling Arms
to the brutal Myanmar junta.

Help Myanmar refugees seeking Humanitarian Assistance.

As the world largest
democratic country,
India must show support to pro-democracy movement
in neighboring Myanmar.

YOUR VOICE
can make a difference.

Help us tell the Indian Government

Here are what you need to know.

Ethnic Revolutionary Organizations have been defending their own territories since the independence in 1948.

Myanmar military is accused of Genocide, War Crimes, and Crimes Against Humanity in ethnic minority regions since 7 decades ago.

In 2021, the military is waging offensive war against its own people who resisted their attempted coup.

A year after the attempted coup, Myanmar military is still unable to gain control. The people of Myanmar need India's help to protect them from the junta's brutality and restore democracy.

“AS A NEIGHBOUR,
INDIA PLAYS
AN IMPORTANT ROLE”

Since February
Myanmar Junta has

Arrested
14018+ people

Killed
1905+ civilians
