

Summary

- The election commission of the military council announced on March 28, 2023, that a total of 40 political parties including the National League for Democracy (NLD) were disbanded because they did not re-register for the election.
- On March 27, 2023, Min Aung Hlaing paid respects to retired military seniors including former-president U Thein Sein who attended the event of the annual Armed Forces Day of SAC in Naypyitaw.
- Min Aung Hlaing met with a Russian legal delegation led by Prosecutor General Igor Krasnov and discussed potential further legal cooperation in Nay Pyi Taw on March 22, 2023.
- There was a meeting between the peace negotiation team of the military council and United Wa Stated Party(UWSP), National Democratic Alliance Army(NDAA), and Shan State Progressive Party (SSPP) in Nay Pyi Taw on March 22 and 23, 2023.

Internal Relations and Conferences

- There was a meeting between the peace negotiation team of the military council and United Wa Stated Party (UWSP), National Democratic Alliance Army (NDAA), and Shan State Progressive Party (SSPP) in Nay Pyi Taw on March 22 and 23, 2023.
- Min Aung Hlaing sent a message for the 49th Mon Day celebration on March 19, 2023.

International Relations

- U Than Swe, Minister for Foreign Affairs of the SAC, met with Mr. Chen Hai, China's ambassador to Myanmar, and discussed the resettlement of displaced persons from Rakhine in Nay Pyi Taw, on March 23, 2023.
- Lt-Gen Soe Htut met with Mr.Chen Hai, China's ambassador to Myanmar, and discussed security matters, and border issues in Nay Pyi Taw on March 23, 2023.

- Min Aung Hlaing met with a Russian legal delegation led by Prosecutor General Igor Krasnov and discussed potential further legal cooperation in Nay Pyi Taw on March 22, 2023.

Activities

- On March 27, 2023, Min Aung Hlaing paid respects to retired military seniors including former-president U Thein Sein who attended the event of the annual Armed Forces Day of SAC in Naypyitaw.
- SAC held the 58th Myanmar Gems Emporium at the Mani Yadana Jade Hall in Nay Pyi Taw from March 17 to 23, 2023.
- It was reported on March 21, 2023, that Military Council has been planning to expand and build the airports of Sittwe and Thandawe into international-level airports.
- Min Aung Hlaing on March 19, 2023, visited Monywa, Sagaing, and called for unity within the military.

Announcements

- The election commission of the military council announced on March 28, 2023, that a total of 40 political parties including the National League for Democracy (NLD) were disbanded because they did not re-register for the election.
- Min Aung Hlaing said at the celebration of 78th Armed Forces Day in Naypyitaw on March 27, 2023, that he would take decisive action against the National Unity Government (NUG), People Defense Forces (PDF), and its allied Ethnic Revolutionary Organizations (EROs).
- SAC said on March 22, 2023, that they would welcome around 1,000 Rohingya refugees by mid-April.

Summary

- The election commission of the military council announced on March 28, 2023, that a total of 40 political parties including the National League for Democracy(NLD) were disbanded because they did not re-register for the election.
- On March 27, 2023, Min Aung Hlaing paid respects to retired military seniors including former-president U Thein Sein who attended the event of the annual Armed Forces Day of SAC in Naypyitaw.
- Min Aung Hlaing met with a Russian legal delegation led by Prosecutor General Igor Krasnov and discussed potential further legal cooperation in Nay Pyi Taw on March 22, 2023.
- There was a meeting between the peace negotiation team of the military council and United Wa Stated Party(UWSP), National Democratic Alliance Army(NDAA), and Shan State Progressive Party (SSPP) in Nay Pyi Taw on March 22 and 23, 2023.

MARCH 17 - MARCH 30

SAC MONITOR

NLTA 3203

Internal Relations and Conferences

There was a meeting between the peace negotiation team of the military council and United Wa Stated Party(UWSP), National Democratic Alliance Army(NDAA), and Shan State Progressive Party (SSPP) in Nay Pyi Taw on March 22 and 23, 2023.

Min Aung Hlaing sent a message for the 49th Mon Day celebration on March 19, 2023.

A meeting between the peace negotiation team of the military council and United Wa Stated Party(UWSP), National Democratic Alliance Army(NDAA), and Shan State Progressive Party (SSPP) in Nay Pyi Taw

MARCH 17 - MARCH 30

SAC MONITOR

NLTA 3203

International Relations

U Than Swe, Minister for Foreign Affairs of the SAC, met with Mr. Chen Hai, China's ambassador to Myanmar, and discussed the resettlement of displaced persons from Rakhine in Nay Pyi Taw, on March 23, 2023.

Lt-Gen Soe Htut met with Mr. Chen Hai, China's ambassador to Myanmar, and discussed security matters, and border issues in Nay Pyi Taw on March 23, 2023.

Min Aung Hlaing met with a Russian legal delegation led by Prosecutor General Igor Krasnov and discussed potential further legal cooperation in Nay Pyi Taw on March 22, 2023.

Min Aung Hlaing met with a Russian legal delegation led by Prosecutor General Igor Krasnov and discussed potential further legal cooperation in Nay Pyi Taw on March 22, 2023.

MARCH 17 - MARCH 30

SAC MONITOR

NLTA 3203

Activities

On March 27, 2023, Min Aung Hlaing paid respects to retired military seniors including former-president U Thein Sein who attended the event of the annual Armed Forces Day of SAC in Naypyitaw.

On March 27, 2023, Min Aung Hlaing paid respects to retired military seniors including former-president U Thein Sein who attended the event of the annual Armed Forces Day of SAC in Naypyitaw.

MARCH 17 - MARCH 30

SAC MONITOR

NLTA 3203

Activities

SAC held the 58th Myanmar Gems Emporium at the Mani Yadana Jade Hall in Nay Pyi Taw from March 17 to 23, 2023.

It was reported on March 21, 2023, that Military Council has been planning to expand and build the airports of Sittwe and Thandwe into international-level airports.

Min Aung Hlaing on March 19, 2023, visited Monywa, Sagaing, and called for unity within the military.

MARCH 17 - MARCH 30

SAC MONITOR

NLTA 3203

Announcements

March 28

The election commission of the military council announced on March 28, 2023, that a total of 40 political parties including the National League for Democracy (NLD) were disbanded because they did not re-register for the election.

Min Aung Hlaing said at the celebration of 78th Armed Forces Day in Naypyitaw on March 27, 2023, that he would take decisive action against the National Unity Government (NUG), People Defense Forces (PDF), and its allied Ethnic Revolutionary Organizations (EROs).

March 27

March 22

SAC said on March 22, 2023, that they would welcome around 1,000 Rohingya refugees by mid-April.